

9 A WORD FROM HEAVEN

Presented by Wendy Alec

BELOVED, THERE IS SUCH A HEALING ANOINTING HERE RIGHT NOW, AND FOR ANY OF YOU WHO MAY HAVE MISSED THESE PROGRAMMES THAT WE HAVE BEEN DOING ABOUT THE FATHER AND THE IMPARTATION OF THE LOVE OF THE FATHER, THEN JUST LIFT YOUR HANDS RIGHT NOW, FOR THE HEALING POWER OF THE LORD IS HERE.

REVELATION OF THE FATHER (PART 4)

Perhaps you have just tuned in for the first time this week, or maybe you are watching online, and you know deep down that you really need healing from not having a great earthly father, then know that there is a healing anointing here for you right now.

Maybe you were abandoned, maybe you never had an earthly father, maybe your earthly father abused you - maybe sexually, maybe emotionally, maybe with anger. For all these wounds, wounds that come up in your life, that affect your decisions, that affect your relationships in your family (maybe even with your wife, or your husband or with your children), the healing power of the Lord Jesus is here, the healing power of the Father is here. There are things that the devil has been trying to trip you up with, some for a few years, others for 40 or 50 years... But, know that the healing power and the tender mercies and the compassion of the Father, of the Heavenly Father are here for you, to heal your heart, to heal your emotions, to heal you today.

And, Father, I just thank You. Holy Spirit, we just thank You for Your healing anointing. Thank You for your healing anointing. Thank You, thank You, Holy Spirit that You are reading many of these hearts.

I see the Holy Spirit is actually reading many hearts like a radar and He is getting to the wounds, and He is pouring fresh oil on them, and He is pouring the love of the Father. He is pouring the love and the tender mercies and the compassion of the Father on those dry places, on those thorns. I see many thorns in many hearts and some of them have been pushed in so well that they don't even look like thorns. It looks like there is a little black bruise there, because for some of you, these things have been so pushed down.

And you know what I see it is almost like? I don't know if it is Jesus's hand or the Father's hand, but I see a hand just taking out and easing out the thorns, even those ones that are so pushed in. God doesn't want any thorn to stay there. He doesn't want those bruises there.

So, Father, I ask Father, as there are those ones that You know need Your touch today, as these ones are opening their hearts to You, oh Lord Jesus, oh Beloved Father, I ask that You go in there and with Your compassionate hand that You take out these thorns of injustice. Take out these thorns of judgement.

Some of you were judged. Some of you were so misunderstood by your father that it has led to you having a fear of male authority and this has gone into many areas of your life, not just in church life, but even for you in business.

"You need healing, you need healing, you need healing, you need healing," says the Lord, "You need healing!" I sense there are some pastors' wives, and you need healing. And some of you need to forgive. Some of you have tried so hard to forgive, but there is an anointing here now. There is the anointing of the Father here, so if you know you need to confess that right now, in the presence of the Father, His healing power is here to heal you. Just confess and say, "Father, forgive my father for spitefully using me, forgive my father for misunderstanding and misinterpreting my motives. Oh Father, oh Father, forgive my father for emotionally abusing me. Forgive him for his anger."

I feel for many of you, you need to forgive your fathers for abandoning you. Say "Father forgive my father for abandoning me." And as you forgive, you are going to be released. I see multitudes where God doesn't even have to take the thorns out by His hand now, because they are just popping out, popping out through that forgiveness.

Oh Father, I ask Father, that as Your healing compassions touch Your sons' and daughters' hearts Father, that they may start to feel Your joy. Jesus came to give us life and life more abundantly and I pray that these ones would start to feel some of Your joy.

I feel that the Father has said that there are some of you who have been in depression and you have not experienced real joy for a long, long time, all to do with the wounds of your father. All to do with the wounds of not knowing your earthly father's love or not knowing the love of your Heavenly Father.

Now Father, I ask for all those who have not known Your tangible presence. Father, I ask that they would know from this moment on, your tangible presence, Father. Father I ask that their relationship with You would know no bounds. Father I ask that You would wake them in the morning and wake them them in the evening, that they would run to You. That they would not just know You as Father, but that they would know You as their Daddy.

If you haven't known the Father or if the Father has been far to you, I ask that you say this prayer after me:

"Father, I come before You as Your child in the Name of Your beloved Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Father, I haven't known You in intimacy. I ask that I would know Your all-consuming love and mercies for me. Father I ask that I would know You as my Daddy. That You would take me up as my Daddy. On Your knee and hold me to Your breast and love me even as You would a babe in arms."

Father I thank You that You hear these ones who pray this prayer. Father I thank You and even now You would lift them up and just hold them to Your breast and love them.

I see the Father singing lullabies over you. The lullabies your father never sang over you when you were little, when you were a baby. The lullabies your father never, never sang over you, the Father is singing over you today.

And now this is what I felt on the last programme. I felt that the Lord said, the Father said that there are many of you whose destinies in Him and whose visions in Him and whose callings in Him had literally been stunted, been aborted because of this tremendous healing that had not taken place that needed to have taken place. And so right now in the closing moments of this programme, I am just going to pray a release upon destinies, these destinies.

Father You know who these ones are. These men and women Father, whose destinies have been stunted, who have only grown so much.

I see some trees that are only that high and God the Father created you to be these magnificent oaks and provide cover and sustenance and life for so many, many people. Some of you are meant to provide life for thousands of people and some of you have worldwide ministry ahead, but you have been so bound by these past things because of your earthly father, because of wounds that your ministry has not been able to start. And your calling is not only in ministry but also in the marketplace. That's still ministry. We must not be religious about these things in this End-Time hour. That's ministry too. Some of you are called by God to the marketplace, but your ministry has been aborted and it has not been flowing as it should.

So, Father, I thank You, Father that as Your sons and daughters have forgiven their fathers, Father that as Your sons and daughters have started to feel Your embrace and Your healing touch, Father I thank You that You release upon them from Heaven, from Your throne in Heaven, Your destiny that You created from their conception.

And right now in the Name and the authority of the Father, in the Name of His beloved Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, I activate that destiny upon your life right now. That which the Father conceived you for. That which He hand-picked you for, from the beginning of time. From before the foundations of the earth, He knew you. For such a purpose you were born. I activate right now that purpose and that calling for your destiny right now, right now in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Father I thank You for Your angelic host Father, assigned to these ones to bring about their vision, to bring about their calling, to bring about their ministry, to bring about their ministry in the secular world, to bring about their ministry in the marketplace, Father. Father, I just thank You for divine, supernatural activation – divine supernatural activation – a speeding up – a suddenly – a speeding up – a suddenly in the Name of Jesus. In the Name of Jesus.

"Freedom from abandonment. Freedom from deferred hope. Freedom from deferred hope", says the Lord. Freedom from deferred hope and fulfilment of every promise from the Father to you.

Thank You Father, we love You Father. I thank You Father for each one watching today, Father, to feel Your love and know Your presence, Father and Your consuming passion for them, Father.

Amen.
